

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
WASHINGTON

14 March 1949

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
48 Wall Street
New York, New York

Dear Allen:

After I left your house yesterday evening, it occurred to me that perhaps you had expected me to remain behind for further talk. If that was the case, I not only apologize but I regret it very much, as I would have welcomed discussing a number of questions with you. However, I had the impression that you had other plans and, inasmuch as the group was breaking up, I left with the others, who were making arrangements for us to dine together.

Perhaps you will be in Washington before long and then we will be able to resume where we left off.

With best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Bob
Robert Blum